Happy 4th of July, we hope you have a great holiday and a safe celebration. Too many people are burned and otherwise injured with fireworks... don't be a statistic. The Red, White and Bluegrass Festival at the Caswell Vineyards would be a great place to celebrate early (June 28-30) with bands such as Vern Williams, Sidesaddle, Sarah Elizabeth Campbell & Nina Gerber with Sam Page, Hijinks, Rhythm Rasslers and Electi-catz.

If you are interested in becoming more involved in the California Bluegrass Association run for the Board of Directors. There are nine directors who are elected by the general membership to serve each year. All that is needed is a petition to be on the ballot with the signatures of 15 current CBA members, submitted by August 1, 1991. If you are interested please contact one of the current board members for further information.

Our Annual Meeting, election and Fall campout has been set

Wanted: Bands Interested in Performing at the 1992 CBA Father's Day Festival

Bands who are interested in performing at the 1992 California Bluegrass Association Bluegrass Festival are asked to submit their material by September 30, 1991. Submissions should include a cassette tape or record of material which is typical of the music currently being performed and a promotion package which includes a biographical sketch of the group members, including a photograph.

The band selection committee usually meets on the first weekend in November to choose the bands to appear at the June festival. Selection committee members are all volunteers and may not serve more than two years in a row. A blind listening is conducted for a preliminary list which is then narrowed down to the bands who perform. In 1991 there were 52 bands who submitted material for consideration.

Clogging groups who would like to perform are asked to submit a video tape of a recent performance or make arrangements to audition at the band selection committee meeting.

Promotion packages and samples should be mailed to Carl Pagter, 17 Julianne Court, Walnut Creek, CA 94595. If you have questions about the process, the materials needed etc. please call Don Denison at (209) 464-5324 or Carl Pagter at (415) 938-4221.

for the last weekend in October this year (October 25-26-27) at the Fairgrounds in Petaluma. We are planning a potluck and barbecue this year, and will be taking advance reservations for camping and the barbecue. Plan to come, bring your friends and family and enjoy a good time weekend.

CBA cookbooks are still for sale by mail from Mike Kemp at 1110 Calhoun Way, Stockton, CA 95207 for $7.00 plus $1.50 for postage. These books are the product of all the recipes submitted by our members and all proceeds will be used for future concerts, campouts and other events. It is a good cause, and the recipes are great!

Thanks again this month to J.D. Rhynes for his Bluegrass Kitchen column and to all of you who wrote in your comments, questions and concerns. This is your forum for expression, and I would urge you to write an article, review, commentary, musical arrangement, crossword puzzle... whatever you would like to contribute, it will be published.

That's all I have this month... I hope to see you at the festivals this Summer. It sure is great to have so much wonderful music available, and I plan to enjoy it all!

Until next month, enjoy the music!

by Don Denison

It certainly feels strange to be writing a July column on the first of June, but Suzanne and I will be at Grass Valley on the 7th of June. The Breakdown must go to press on June 6 if you all are to receive it in July.

There are several things I want to draw to your attention this month. First, three of our Northern California festivals have changed dates. Midsummer has been on the last weekend of July, but will now be held on Labor Day weekend. Be sure to make plans to attend this event. It will be at the Grass Valley Fairgrounds, and will feature Bill Monroe, Jimmy Martin, the Osborne Brothers and many other fine bands.

The second festival that has changed dates is the Gold Country Bluegrass Festival. Gold Country will be held at the Amador County Fairgrounds in Plymouth, August 23, 24 and 25. Featured so far this year are: Tenbrooks, Snakes in the Grass, the All Girl Boys, Homefire, High Strung, Brushy Peak, Mountain Laurel, Touch of Grass, and of course, the youngsters of Bluegrass, the Sullivan and Washburn family band. I have attended this festival since it moved from Bethel Island 4 years ago and have found that it features a very comfortable atmosphere.

The third festival date change you should be aware of is the Strawberry Fall Festival which changes from Labor Day Weekend to the second weekend in September. I know many of you enjoy attending the Strawberry Festival, so be sure you make you plans with the date change in mind.

Besides these festivals there are several events this summer

HELP WANTED - the California Bluegrass Association is looking for an Advertising Salesperson for the Bluegrass Breakdown. Experience is desirable, but not necessary. Duties would include contacting prospective advertisers, soliciting ads and scheduling them for publication with the editor. This is a volunteer position. If you are interested please call Suzanne or Don Denison at (209) 464-5324.

CANDIDATES WANTED for the 1991-92 Board of Directors for the California Bluegrass Association. If you are interested you need to write a petition for election and secure the signatures of at least 15 current CBA members. Petitions must be presented to a member of the current Board of Directors by August 1, 1991. Biographical statements should be sent to the Editor of the Bluegrass Breakdown, 1985 Madrid Drive, Stockton, CA 95205 by August 1 as well. If you would like further information call Don Denison, President at (209) 464-5324.

YOUR ADVERTISEMENT - in this space can reach over 1800 Bluegrass music fans. The cost is reasonable and the rewards can be great! Send your ad and check to Bluegrass Breakdown, 1985 Madrid Drive, Stockton, CA 95205.

that you should check out. Those that come to mind are the Steinbeck, the Red White and Bluegrass Festival, and the High Sierra Music Festival.

Be sure to check our upcoming events listing in case I've forgotten something.

I want to take this opportunity to thank in advance those who will be working to produce our own festival this year. Special thanks to the Grantham Brothers who will be working on the clogging stage. As you should know by now, we are an all-volunteer association, we do hire some contractors, but we endeavor to use our own members as much as possible. This not only cuts expenses, but it gives an opportunity for our members to participate in a meaningful way in our organization. As I have said many times before, this Association will be only as good as its membership. If you see something that needs doing, offer to help, with a letter, come to the board meetings, review a record, help with an event, or at least give support and encouragement to those who are working so hard to make the C.B.A. the kind of an organization it can be.

That's all for this month... have a good July and keep it Bluegrass.

J.D.'s Bluegrass Kitchen

Howdy, Howdy, Howdy!

Here we go again with some real honest to goodness western recipes for some of the best rib stickin meals that you'll ever chance to fix or if you're lucky, share. (Sharing means that someone else fixed it!) That reminds me of the time a few years back at the Midsummer Festival when Bill Monroe had a chance to sample some of my mother's home made soup. He told my mom that it was his favorite kind, FREE. Mom got a kick out of that and remarked that she'd never met a man with a finer sense of humor. Bill's got a million of 'em mom!

Anyhow, I've got just two recipes left in the "Marlboro Chuckwagon Cookbook" to share with all of you folks this month and then next month I'll have to get out all of my bags and boxes of recipes and clutter up this end of the county when its time to sit down and try to make something coherent come out of all those bits and pieces that I've spent the better part of my life collecting.

I think I've told you folks before that one of my prime sources of recipes are waiting rooms. You know, Doctors, Dentists, Lawyers, or just about anywhere that you have an appointment to see someone. I used to get mad when I had a 9 a.m. appointment and waited until 10 a.m. before my turn came. Not any more. I make sure my pocket knife is good and sharp and when I read a good recipe that I like I just cut it out, fold it up, and stick it in my pocket.

In fact I try to get there early anymore because last time I went to my dentist I had to leave about 6 or 8 good recipes there because I actually was called at the time my appointment was for! What nerve! Don't they know that I've got all of you folks to write for. (He did say something about how some of his magazines fall apart easy after I've been there.)

Enough of this "chin music", lets get down to it. By now you've probably realized that the real live Cowboys of yesteryear ate more than their share of beans. So fittingly one of these last recipes in the "Chuckwagon Cookbook" is aptly titled:

Trail Drive Beans

12-oz. pkg. dry red beans
2 1/2 cups water
1/3 pound salt pork, diced (2/3 cup)
2 lbs. beef, cubed (4 cups)
1 cup chopped onions
1 clove garlic, minced
1 6-oz. can tomato paste
4 tsp chili powder
1 tsp each of salt, cumin seed, and crushed dried red pepper
1 bay leaf

Wash and sort beans. Soak overnight in cold water; drain. Put beans in a large Dutch Oven, add the 2 1/2 cups of water and simmer for one hour. Render salt pork in a skillet; add beef and brown. Pour off excess fat and add pork and beef to beans with the rest of the ingredients. Cover and simmer for two hours, adding hot water as needed. Serves 6 to 8 normal people or Cuzin' Al and Sonny Hammond. Double the recipe if these two are there, so the rest of us can eat.

Here's what one old "Cocinero" had to say about cooking beans: "What makes beans so handy is you can cook 'em with anything, from the hottest Catsup to the smoothest Molasses. A man's got to know these things if he's goin' to keep the boys happy!"

You know, that old camp cook sure was right, because when you think of it, I guess the bean is just about like the potato. You can cook 'em with just bout anything and come up with a meal that just about everyone will like. Like my ol' pardner Vern Williams always says: "There ain't much you can do to a bean to hurt it!"

Fittingly the last recipe from this book is a mouth watering dessert made with dried apples. (I guess one of my fondest memories of my boyhood in Arkansas was the times that my mom would cook up some fried pies, made with either dried apples, peaches or apricots). I'm going to include the recipes for the Dry Baking Mix and Sourdough Starter again, seeing as how they're called for in this recipe and its been a while since they were featured in the column. Besides a lot of the recipes I've featured from the book call for them and some of the friends and neighbors out there might have lost or misplaced those issues of the Breakdown. So without further ado here's how you make:

Dried Apple Cake

1/2 lb. dried apples, chopped (3 cups)
4 cups water
1 cup sugar
1 recipe Dry Baking Mix
1 1/2 cups Sourdough Starter
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 tsp cinnamon
1/2 tsp nutmeg
1/4 cup butter

Cook dried apples in 4 cups water until tender. Drain and save juice. Measure 2 cups juice, adding water if needed. Mix 1/4 cup sugar with dry baking mix; stir in sourdough starter to moisten flour. Turn onto a floured surface, knead lightly; pat or roll to a 12x18 inch rectangle. Sprinkle with apples. Roll, starting at short end; cut into 12 slices. Put remaining sugar, brown sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg and the 2 cups apple liquid into a large deep skillet. Bring to a boil. Gently lower apple slices into hot syrup. Bake in a 375° oven for 35-40 minutes. Makes 12 servings.

Here's what the "Cookie" had to say about his Dried Apple Cakes. "They tell me they can smell these cookin' when they're still miles away from the wagon, even when the winds blowin' the other way."

From personal experience I can tell you that these are pure Ambrosia!

Here's the recipe for the Dry Baking Mix and the Sourdough Starter. Actually these two kind of tie in with what I've got planned to write about next month, so you'll already have a head start on next month's offering. My old pard Vern Williams recently gave me a cookbook that deals strictly with sourdough and all of the wonderful things that you can make with it, but that's next month's column. For now, here's how to make:

Dry Baking Mix

2 cups flour
1 TBSP sugar
1 TBSP baking powder
1 tsp salt
1/3 cup lard or shortening.

Sift or mix dry ingredients. Cut in the shortening until mixture resembles fine meal.

This is basically the same thing as Bisquick and I'm sure you could substitute it and get excellent results, but it is good to know how to mix this up.

Sourdough Starter

1 Qt. lukewarm water
1 pkg dry yeast
2 tsp sugar
4 cups all purpose flour

Put water in a crock or plastic container, never metal. Add yeast and sugar to soften. Stir in flour. Cover with a clean cloth. Let rise until mixture is light and slightly aged, about 2 days. Mixture will thin as it stands. As you use sourdough from the crock replace with equal amounts of flour and water.

If you keep your starter in the refrigerator, it slows down the fermentation process considerably but you should "feed" it at least once a week or so. The starter that I have now is about two years old and getting better all the time. Some years ago I had a wonderful starter that was about 15 years old. My kids called it "The Beast" because it was definitely alive and well and lived in its own little corner of the frig, and its yeasty aroma was a delight to many a picker that got to sample the sourdough hotcakes and biscuits that had their origins in that lovely pot. We'll delve into this at length next month. (I can still see Steve Waller and Sonny Hammond fighting over that last sourdough biscuit that I cooked for breakfast some years ago.)

Now I'd like to tell you folks about one of my favorite restaurants in these whole United States. The name of it is CHET's and its located at 148 N. Wilson Way in Stockton, California. I've been eating there since 1941 so you might say that I know what I'm talking about when I tell you that this is not only one of the oldest but also one of the very best restaurants in the city of Stockton. They baked fresh Peda bread every day and its available one a first come, first served basis. This is some of the best bread that you'll ever have a chance to eat.

(I love to have Peda toast with my breakfast). The food is excellent and the prices are moderate. This is a working mans place and its very unpretentious but don't be fooled by the way it looks from the outside. The staff and the clientele are like on big family here, I guess its because we've known each other for so long.

You get a nice warm feeling when you walk in because this is a good old fashioned place to have a good old fashioned meal without all of the glitz and glitter of these "modern" restaurants. They also have a full service bar for your favorite mixed drinks or beer and wine. The back bar is a story in itself. It came around the horn from Boston on a sailing ship in the last century and was in a saloon in Placerville until the early part of this century when it was brought to Stockton and has been at Chet's ever since.

They're open from 6 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday and Sunday for brunch. Should you live in this part of California or just traveling through, stop in at CHET's and have a good old fashioned meal in one of the finest places to eat on the West Coast. You won't be sorry you did, and tell Phil Asborno that J.D. told you to say hi. He'll be glad that you did.

Well my friends, that's it for this month and I look forward to seeing you all here again next month so till then, may God grant you all peace and health.

Yer friends,
J.D. Rhynes

Midsummer Announces 1991 Festival Lineup

Here's the information you have been waiting for, the 7th Annual Midsummer Bluegrass Festival publicity has arrived! The festival has changed its dates to Labor Day Weekend, August 29 to September 1, 1991. The location is still the same, the Nevada County Fairgrounds in Grass Valley, and the promoters are the same folks that brought you Midsummer Festivals 1-6. Hardworking partners, Dan and Carol Bernstein, Skip Green, Kent Sommers, Butch Waller and Kathy Kallick are once again planning a great festival for this year.

Featured performers in an outstanding line up are Bill Monroe, Jimmy Martin, the Osborne Brothers, Frank Wakefield, Mark O'Connor, Kenny Baker and Josh Graves. Plus: Bryan Bowers, Sara Elizabeth Campbell, California Quickstep, Country Ham, Good Ol' Persons, High Country, Carol McComb, Piney Creek Weasels, Harvey Reid, Shaggy Mountain Boys and more!

Camping is available with the purchase of the weekend or 2-day tickets only. There is a $10 per vehicle camping charge for Thursday night. No dogs are permitted and the performance will be held rain or shine. Gates will open at noon on Thursday with no early camping permitted.

Ticket prices are $55 adult, $25 child (12-18) for all days; 2-Day tickets are $45/$20; Thursday only FREE; Friday only $15/$5; Saturday only $20/10; Sunday only $20/15.

Advance tickets are available by mail from Midsummer Bluegrass Festival, P.O. Box 1172, Pollock Pines, CA 95726 or call (916) 455-5117 or 1-800-660-9644 (California only) 11am-9pm Monday thru Thursday or 11am-5pm Friday and Saturday. They are also available at all BASS outlets as well as 5th String Music Store in Berkeley; Blueridge Pickin Parlor in Canoga Park; Foggy Mountain Music, Grass Valley; Chamber of Commerce in Grass Valley; Gryphon Stringed Instruments in Palo Alto; 5th String Music Store in Sacramento; and the 5th String Music Store in San Francisco.

July Letters to the Editor

Texas Radio Station Writes

Editor:

I just saw your name and address in the latest issue of OLD TIME COUNTRY magazine, and we at KAMU-FM would be happy to receive issues of your publication for reference and promotion on-air.

KAMU-FM is a listener-supported National Public Radio member station licensed to Texas A&M University, and has aired bluegrass and traditional music for many years. Two local shows, Rodney O'Connor's BLUEGRASS HOUR and Eric Truax's SATURDAY AFTERNOON FOLK would no doubt benefit from the info contained in the Bluegrass Breakdown.

Thanks... we look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Larry Jackson
FM Station Manager
College Station, TX

Editor's note: Isn't it wonderful how far word of the California Bluegrass Association is traveling these days? We will put the station on our mailing list, and if anyone else out there would like copies for publicity and promotion please let me know. Suzanne.

Thanks from District #9 CSOTF

Editor:

Thank you for your help in publishing the April and May workshops that were sponsored by District #9 of the California State Old Time Fiddlers Association. Your excellent coverage of these events resulted in some new people attending our monthly meetings.

Sincerely,
Jerry Pujol
Napa, CA

Editor's note: we are always happy to publish events for any acoustic music group, festival, event, concert, band appearance etc. The only thing required is to get the information to the editor by the 1st of the month prior to the publication. For the August issue, for instance, that means July 1st. This is the only way that we can get the information out to our readers on time. If you have any event you want publicized please write to me at 1985 Madrid Drive, Stockton, CA 95205. Suzanne

Information Sought

Editor:

In the Bluegrass News Notes section of the June 1991 Breakdown, it was mentioned that Laurie Lewis was featured on the cover of Bluegrass Unlimited. I would be very interested in obtaining the address of this or any other Bluegrass publication you are aware of for subscription purposes. Materials of this nature seem to be very scarce around these parts and I feel like I'm "starving" for more.

Breakdown is first class all the way and I can hardly wait for each new issue. Thank you to all who work so hard to put it together each month.

Sincerely,
Michael English
Lodi, CA

Editor's note: The address for Bluegrass Unlimited is Box 111, Broad Run, VA 22014 (703) 349-8181. Subscription is $20 per year, overseas or Canada $27.00. This fine magazine is the only Bluegrass magazine that I know about. There are other publications which promote various acoustic music and instruments, but not any that I am aware of that so thoroughly promote and cover Bluegrass music and musicians. If anyone knows of another publication please let me know. Thank you Michael for your praise and support for the Breakdown. Suzanne

Information Sought on Ware Family Bluegrass/Gospel Group

Editor:

The Nevada County Fair Grounds has given me your address to ask for the mailing address and phone number of the Ware (Ware) Family Bluegrass and Gospel Group so I can ask if they have any recordings to sell.

It would be appreciated if you could send me the enclosed post card with that information. Thank you very much. I found some of their recordings at Uncle Jim's, Arcadia, CA, and am looking for more. I live on Long Island, New York and need your help in finding them.

Yours truly,
Walter Sutcliff
Glen Head, NY

Editor's note: I'm sorry to say that we do not have the information Mr. Sutcliff asked for. If any of our readers knows about this group and their address will you please let me know? Thanks for your help. Suzanne
